

K-2 ELA & MATH SUMMER RESOURCES

Reading/Writing	Math	Multi-Subject Practice Sites
Unite for Literacy - Online library celebrating all children and their languages and their cultures, available in English & Spanish. 	Prodigy - Register or log in to access engaging, motivating and differentiated math practice for students. 	ABCya - Click on the appropriate grade level to find fun games to practice important reading & math skills.
Story Online - The SAG-AFTRA Foundation's award-winning literacy website that streams videos featuring celebrated actors reading children's books. 	Splash Learn - Create a free parent account and get a personalized learning path fit for regular practice and enrichment. 	Fun Brain - Search by grade for a variety of online and printable resources.
Summer Writing Prompts - Grab a pencil and a journal and have some summer fun with these writing prompts. There are 31 days of writing prompts on this calendar. 	Summer Math Challenge - A free, six-week program to practice math skills taught during the school year. Register your student for access to daily fun activities and resources designed for your student's grade and ability level. 	Education.com - Online games that help students master various skills. Use the grade level filter to access age appropriate games. You will need to provide an email for access. 